

Costa Rica-The Big Fan

Costa Rica has always been known as an ecofriendly getaway. Their Pura Vida Life supports a sustainable lifestyle. Blow your loved one away with a gift that has the power to energize the earth. The Big Fan giftpack supports the creation of renewable energy and jobs by funding the construction of wind turbines in Costa Rica. Through this project 50,000 people will receive power and 11,000 tonnes of carbon emissions will be saved. It's a gift that's sure to impress anyone who lives a sustainable lifestyle and is the perfect way to tell them that you're their biggest fan.

Skiers Delight-The Snowman Gift Pack

Melt a loved one's heart with a gift that has a lasting impact. The Snowman gift pack helps to save our snowmen from melting away by supporting projects that cool our earth and reduce carbon pollution. This gift pack supports all Cool Effect projects across the globe to fight climate change. You'll be helping provide clean cookstoves for kids in Uganda, protecting the rainforest in Madagascar, and be supporting the construction of renewable wind power in Costa Rica. It's a gift that is sure to warm their hearts.

Green With Renvy Favorite ♥ The Poo Package

As I start my 6th trip to India, I can especially relate to this project. Cows are sacred here, and as such, roaming freely everywhere. With that comes their poop, a powerful source for energy in this country. The Poo Package might sound like a punchline but it's a powerful gift that supports a very real environmental project. The gift pack benefits the Community Biogas Project which helps family farmers in India build biogas digesters to turn animal waste into clean, usable energy. You'll be giving a gift that not only reduces harmful methane emissions but also helps to power communities in India, it's a gift that doesn't stink.

For the Coffee Lover-A Brew-tiful Gift

Traveling in the Amazon region of Peru recently with AdventureSmith Explorations was an eyeopening experience. Along with an appreciation for the indigenous culture, from the air we could clearly see that forest areas have been decimated by deforestation. Give a Brew-tiful Gift that will support efforts to reduce logging in coffee growing regions. This gift pack funds the Alto Mayo rainforest project which protects nearly 450,000 Peruvian acres from deforestation. While it also contributes to reducing firewood use in Honduras by nearly 50 percent by providing clean cookstoves to local families. It's a gift that any coffee lover can appreciate.
